The Clerk of the Superior Court's Office in conjunction with Superior Court Administration are continuing the new General Civil Electronic Filing Pilot Program.

The Clerk's Office is presenting free one-hour training sessions to provide specific details about the program, answer questions, and demonstrate how the system will operate. Law firms who have a designated case for the program are invited to send as many representatives as they wish to a demonstration. In addition, anyone interested in knowing more about efilng is also invited to attend any of the sessions.

Following are the times and dates of the sessions. Each session will be held in the Clerk of the Superior Court's Training Room on the second floor of the Central Court Building, 201 W. Jefferson, Phoenix. All sessions provide the same information.
